JOINT CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO FACILITATE CONTINUED MEDIATION

COME NOW Plaintiff and Defendants (the "Parties") herein and file this Joint Consent Motion For Extension to Facilitate Continued Mediation. As grounds for this second extension, the Parties show that they all met in person for mediation in Atlanta, Georgia on October 13, 2015. The mediation proceeded throughout the day and ended with the parties close to a potential settlement. The primary hindrances to settlement were the need for certain additional investigation by accountants and the production of certain other information by Defendant concerning inter-relatedness of non-party merchants<sup>1</sup>. The Parties anticipate that the additional activity needed to complete the mediation process will be no more than three weeks.

The Parties are filing this motion in all related cases contemporaneously. Accordingly, this same Joint Consent Motion for Extension to Facilitate Mediation is being filed in: Global Payments Direct, Inc. v. Intelligent Payments, LLC, et al., Northern District of Georgia, Civil Action File Number: 1:14-CV-02634-LMM; Global Payments Direct, Inc. v. Jeffrey Kendall Mains, Eastern District of Texas, Civil Action File Number: 4:15-CV-00214; and Global Payments Direct, Inc. v. John Wesley Shutt, Middle District of Tennessee, Civil Action File Number: 3:15-CV-00274.

The Parties respectfully request that they be granted an extension of all applicable deadlines through and including November 11, 2015. To the extent any scheduling orders already exist, the Parties respectfully request that all such dates be adjusted in accordance with the requested extension.

Wherefore, The Parties respectfully request an extension of all applicable deadlines through and including November 11, 2015.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of October, 2015.
